THE BREVITY BASKET.

Filled With Brief Mention of Many Minor Events of Yesterday.

Conrad Stiermeier has been reappointed an additional private, for duty at Jaenemann's garden.

A colored man, named William Burk, was fined $5 in the police court yesterday for street blasphemy.

The $5,000 bonds required by law was deposited with the commissioners by the Postal Telegraph company yesterday.

The Chesapeake and Potomac Telegraph company has been granted permission to erect a pole in alley in square 290.

Joseph Simmons was arrested yesterday for stealing 1,000 pounds of brass valued at $352 from the Washington naval arsenal.

James Dorsey was in the police court yesterday on charge of being a suspicious person, and was sent down for three months.

The commissioners yesterday granted permission to the standard Underground Cable company to lay a cable from the fire alarm and telegraph office to the Smithsonian institution.

The funeral services of the late Henry Bradshaw, of East Washington, took place yesterday morning at the family residence, No. 634 A street. The remains were removed to Woodbury, N. J., where the interment will take place.

The case of John Harris, indicted for violating the postal law, which has been on trial in the criminal court for the last two days, terminated yesterday by a flaw being discovered in the indictment, and a verdict of not guilty returned.

James Miller, who made application to use the dock at the foot of Third street southeast and erect a temporary boat house there, has been notified by the commissioners that they could not permit the use of the dock without due compensation.

A. Saks & Co., who suggested to the commissioners that the water inspectors be uniformed, so as to prevent impositions on citizens, have been notified by the commissioners that the inspectors are armed with the necessary credentials.

Walter Turner and John Hill were arrested yesterday morning on suspicion of entering the residence of Mr. W. H. Wright, corner of Thirteenth and H streets northwest, last Sunday night, by means of a false key, and carrying off a quantity of cigars, tobacco, and clothing, amounting to $80. The officers recovered one of the coats, which was stolen from Mrs. John Shea, on Maryland avenue, where it had been sold for $4.

The officers elect of Union Bethel A. M. E. Sunday school are Joseph C. Beckett, superintendent; Miss Annie E. Geary, assistant superintendent; Miss Letitia Leo, secretary; Miss Hattie Hobbs, assistant secretary; Miss Flora Waters, treasurer; John W. Crowell, librarian; Chas. H. Shorter, assistant librarian; Joseph Amos, chorister; Mrs. Maria Ricketts, assistant chorister; Miss Lolla Amos, organist; Miss Martha E. Freeman, assistant organist.

How the hearts of a crowd swell and throb with pious hatred against the man who coughs during the performance at a theater, when they know he is too stingy to invest 25 cents in a bottle of Dr. Hall's Cough Syrup.

Reception to a Pastor.
Rev. Robert N. Baer, recently appointed to the pastorate of Waugh M. E. church, brought his family to Washington on Wednesday evening, and occupied the parsonage, which has been painted, papered, and otherwise put in first-class order. The committee of ladies having the matter in charge received the minister and his family, and prepared a beautiful repast upon their introduction to their new home. This evening a public reception will be tendered Dr. and Mrs. Baer in the lecture room of the church, to which their friends and the members and friends of the church are cordially invited.

The City Postoffice.
A commendable purpose of Postmaster Conger is to obtain the portraits of all the Washington city postmasters and hang them in the postmaster's room in the city postoffice. There have been sixteen postmasters of Washington, as follows: Thomas Johnson, Jr., appointed Sept. 1, 1793; Christopher Richmond, Lund Washington, Thomas Monroe, William Jones, James S. Gunnell, Charles Gardner, William A. Bradley, James G. Berret, Lewis Clephane, Sayles J. Bowen, C. M. Alexander, James M. Edmunds, Daniel B. Angier, T. L. Tullock, and F. B. Conger.

The Tenth District Democrats.

The tenth district democratic club met Wednesday evening, at 1230 Pennsylvania avenue northwest. The following delegates and alternates were elected to represent the tenth district at the convention: Delegates—C. S. Moore, J. Emmer, and Warren; alternates, G. E. La Barre and J. Lemman. Delegate to the central committee, C. S. Moore. A committee on badges was appointed.
